

THE EDGEFIELD ADVERTISER.

IS PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY BY W. F. BURISSE, Proprietor, A. SIKKINS & JOHN BACON, Editors.

Two Dollars per year, if paid in advance—Two Dollars and Fifty Cents if not paid in advance.

Advertisements will be charged at the rate of one cent per line for the first insertion, and one-half cent for each subsequent insertion.

Those desiring to advertise by the year can do so on liberal terms—being distinctly understood that contracts for yearly advertising will be made at the rate of one dollar per line for the first year.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

For advertising a Candidate, Three Dollars, in
advance.

The Advertiser.

EDGEFIELD, S. C.
WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 18, 1852.

Notice!

The "EDGEFIELD FLYING ARTILLERY" will celebrate its anniversary on Friday, the 20th inst., at Dr. Wm. H. Burt's Well, near the Village. There will be an Oration and a Dinner.

The Ladies, and the public generally are respectfully invited.

The Members of the Company are requested to assemble at the Village early Friday morning.

We have not sufficient space in our present number for the article signed "A LEADER OF THE PEOP-LE." It will be cheerfully published in our next.

MAJOR GENERAL.

We invite the attention of our readers to the card, and announcement of Col. E. P. Jones of Greenville. It will be found on another column. We deem further, or in fact, any comment unnecessary as the card speaks well and fully for itself.

COMMISSION BUSINESS.

Attention of the public is invited to the advertisement of Messrs. CHAMBERS, JEFFERS & Co., for the purpose of carrying on a general collection and commission business in Charleston. Mr. JEFFERS, formerly of Hamburg, is well known to our readers, inasmuch that we deem further comment entirely unnecessary.

DRUG STORE.

The advertisement of D. B. PIERCE & Co., Druggist and Chemist, Broad Street, Augusta Geo., will be found in to-day's paper. This firm advertises a full and complete assortment, not only of "Drugs, Medicines, Chemicals, &c.," but also a large and well supplied of "superior" Perfumery, Perfumes, Garden Seed &c. We have no doubt but that our readers will be pleased and benefited by calling upon these gentlemen.

WARE HOUSE.

It will be seen from Mr. BEXSON'S card, that he has leased the large and commodious Ware House, formerly occupied by the firm of BRANNON & COLE-MAN. Our planters, and the public in general are well acquainted with Mr. B., and we need only refer them to his advertisement.

PRESIDENTIAL.

SENATOR BUTLER'S letter, published on another column, will be read with great interest by his constituents. We are pleased to learn that the views expressed by him in regard to the Presidency, are similar to those entertained by our humble selves.
Indeed, we believe he has not only reached the true sentiments of the whole State. The remarks of Senator B. are not less remarkable for their brevity and perspicacity, than for their sound logic and convincing argument. While his bold, free and independent tone proves him no ambitious aspirant for Federal distinction, the sincerity and honesty with which his convictions are expressed, argue faithful allegiance, and faithful devotion to the honor and interest of the South.

ARTILLERY DINNER.

We are requested to state on behalf of the Committee of Arrangements for the Artillery Dinner on Friday next, that, hoping to be cheered by the commune of a more lovely fair one on that day, they will be exceedingly pleased to receive from the good housewives of the village and its vicinity their usual complement of pastry, "nie-mas" &c., which will be set off the ladies table. The Committee will provide the cake, meaning, of course, no offence to the ladies.
A fine band (Boileau's from Augusta) will be in attendance.

We take great pleasure in calling the attention of the public to the above announcement. Patriotism bids us proudly celebrate the anniversary of the "bloody field of Clarendon"—indeed duty, honor pay glad tribute to their memory.

We need scarcely say, that the "Butler Artillery," under the careful supervision of our worthy fellow townsman, Capt. W. C. MORAGNE, and his brother Officers, has become not only a finely drilled, but also a useful and efficient corps.

We sincerely trust that the day will be celebrated in the usual fine manner and acclamatory good style of our people. An appropriate Oration will be delivered by Mr. R. SPAN, Esq. We promise ourselves a fine treat from this gentleman, as we are well acquainted with his able pen.

The ladies are cordially invited to grace the anniversary with their presence. The noble survivors of our gallant company, "Ninety-Six," will be in attendance, and certainly if it be true, that
"None but the brave, none but the brave, none but the brave deserve the fair," our ladies will willingly give to these gallant men that which they have so well won, and which they so richly deserve. If the opinion and sentiment of the Post be too much for them, they will, most assuredly, be extremely happy to grace the day with their most winning smiles and heartiest approbation.

NOVEL ACCOUNT OF THE HENRY CLAY.

The wreck of the steamer Henry Clay has caused, we believe, as much excitement, and furnished as many newspaper articles, as the death of that most honored man from whom it derived its name. We are not inclined to say more upon concerning the wreck, but the following from the Home Journal is so entirely novel and interesting as to deserve a small place in our columns.

The whole description of the wreck, given by the paper is excellent—as an instance:

"There was an unsung lady's apron lying on the shore, and the sole of a lady's black silk dress, the upper part had evidently been burnt. A large pine box lay outside the Shanty to receive the next unknown body that should emerge, and in the Shanty a Mahogany Coffin brought up by a husband for his yet unborn wife. There were two stands near by for the sale of Lemonade, Oysters, Pies, Cigars and Tobacco; so quick is the spirit of trade to avail itself of an advantageous opening—several of the dandy species, whose curiosity had drawn thither, made the display of vacant and vulgar hilarity, for which the tribe is noted.
While we were upon the ground the body of a lady was found, floating in the middle of the river, and towed ashore behind a boat, by a rope around her waist. She was dressed in a black silk dress, and a diamond ring glittered upon her darkened finger. Her long loose hair floated upon the water. Whether she had been drowned or old, fair, or the contrary, whether plain, no one could conjecture, so hideously blackened and distorted was her countenance, and swollen was her form. While the crowd was pressing forward to gaze upon this distressing spectacle, a man brought news that the coffin allied to had found its occupant.
The husband, while walking along another part of the beach, saw a body rolling about in the waves, which proved to be the one of which he was in search."

We copy the above ad libitum, without reference to its proper order. The whole description is highly graphic, novel and entertaining.

MR. DE LEON AND THE SOUTHERN PRESS.

SKETCHED will be found the card of Mr. De Leon, the Junior Editor of the Southern Press.

Mr. De Leon condenses a great deal in very few words. We feel that his remarks will be generally and properly appreciated. His uniform and constant devotion to the avocation he has chosen most certainly deserves a rich reward:

"The senior editor and proprietor has announced the discontinuance of the Southern Press. My victory shall be brief. We have differed and will differ on a question of policy—on a question of principle. My own views were fully expressed on the 2d of July as to not need repetition. Subsequent events have but confirmed my convictions on those points, but my difference with my colleague could not change my relation to the Press, so long as I could consistently adhere to it. As I sat by its cradle so I have followed it here. I have neither regrets nor reproaches for the past, for the future the Southern people must provide for me. For five years I have devoted all my means, time and my energies to the advocacy of the Southern cause. The sense of duty performed has been my sole reward; and whatever my sacrifices or sufferings may have been, that conviction has supported, and I will support me, against the active hostility of enemies, and the cold contempt of professing friends."

THE FISHERIES.—The St. John's papers denounce the course of Mr. Cranston, the British Minister, in ordering Admiral Seymour to suspend the capturing of American vessels, and urge his recall.
The steam frigate Mississippi had arrived at St. John's, and an amicable adjustment of the difficulties was speedily anticipated.

The Canadian Reciprocity bill will not be introduced this session, in consequence of the ill-feeling engendered by the difficulties at the fisheries.

Mr. Andrews, the American Consul at St.
John's, has arrived at Washington, and anticipates difficulties in the way of a satisfactory adjustment of the question.

The Barwell Point Sentinel says that Messrs. J. & R. McCreary, of White Plains, cut at their steam saw mill, on the 5th instant, 60 logs, averaging from 10 to 16 inches each, making over 16,000 feet of lumber, for which they received $10 per m. at the mill. They have dressed in four months over 800,000 feet, for which they found a ready sale. Their steam engine is 25 horse power, manufactured by Mc-Leish, Charleston, S. C., with Page & Co's circular saw, of 52 inches, Baltimore.

The Advertiser.

EDGEFIELD, S. C.
WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 18, 1852.

Notice!

The "EDGEFIELD FLYING ARTILLERY" will celebrate its anniversary on Friday, the 20th inst., at
Dr. Wm. H. Burt's Well, near the Village. There will be an Oration and a Dinner.

The Ladies, and the public generally are respectfully invited.

The Members of the Company are requested to assemble at the Village early Friday morning.

We have not sufficient space in our present number for the article signed "A LEADER OF THE PEOP-LE." It will be cheerfully published in our next.

MAJOR GENERAL.

We invite the attention of our readers to the card,
and announcement of Col. E. P. Jones of Greenville. It will be found on another column. We deem further, or in fact, any comment unnecessary
as the card speaks well and fully for itself.

COMMISSION BUSINESS.

Attention of the public is invited to the advertisement of Messrs. CHAMBERS, JEFFERS & Co., for the purpose of carrying on a general collection
and commission business in Charleston. Mr. JEFFERS, formerly of Hamburg, is well known to our readers, inasmuch that we deem further comment entirely unnecessary.

DRUG STORE.

The advertisement of D. B. PIERCE & Co., Druggist and Chemist, Broad Street, Augusta Geo., will be found in to-day's paper. This firm advertises a full and complete assortment, not only of "Drugs, Medicines, Chemicals, &c.," but also a large and well supplied of "superior" Perfumery, Perfumes, Garden Seed &c. We have no doubt but that our readers will be pleased and benefited by calling upon these gentlemen.

WARE HOUSE.

It will be seen from Mr. BEXSON'S card, that he has leased the large and commodious Ware House, formerly occupied by the firm of BRANNON & COLE-MAN. Our planters, and the public in general are well acquainted with Mr. B., and we need only refer them to his advertisement.

PRESIDENTIAL.

SENATOR BUTLER'S letter, published on another column, will be read with great interest by his constituents. We are pleased to learn that the views expressed by him in regard to the Presidency, are similar to those entertained by our humble selves.
Indeed, we believe he has not only reached the true sentiments of the whole State. The remarks of Senator B. are not less remarkable for their brevity
and perspicacity, than for their sound logic and convincing argument. While his bold, free and independent tone proves him no ambitious aspirant for Federal distinction, the sincerity and honesty with which his convictions are expressed, argue faithful allegiance, and faithful devotion to the honor and interest of the South.

ARTILLERY DINNER.

We are requested to state on behalf of the Committee of Arrangements for the Artillery Dinner on Friday next, that, hoping to be cheered by the commune of a more lovely fair one on that day, they will be exceedingly pleased to receive from the good housewives of the village and its vicinity their usual complement of pastry, "nie-mas" &c., which will be set off the ladies table. The Committee will provide the cake, meaning, of course, no offence to the ladies.
A fine band (Boileau's from Augusta) will be in attendance.

We take great pleasure in calling the attention of the public to the above announcement. Patriotism bids us proudly celebrate the anniversary of the
"bloody field of Clarendon"—indeed duty, honor pay glad tribute to their memory.

We need scarcely say, that the "Butler Artillery,"
under the careful supervision of our worthy fellow
townsman, Capt. W. C. MORAGNE, and his brother Officers, has become not only a finely drilled, but also a useful and efficient corps.

We sincerely trust that the day will be celebrated in the usual fine manner and acclamatory good style of our people. An appropriate Oration will be delivered by Mr. R. SPAN, Esq. We promise ourselves a fine treat from this gentleman, as we are well acquainted with his able pen.

The ladies are cordially invited to grace the anniversary with their presence. The noble survivors of our gallant company, "Ninety-Six," will be in attendance, and certainly if it be true, that
"None but the brave, none but the brave, none but the brave deserve the fair,"

our ladies will willingly give to these gallant men that
which they have so well won, and which they so richly deserve. If the opinion and sentiment of the Post be too much for them, they will, most assuredly, be extremely happy to grace the day with their most winning smiles and heartiest approbation.

NOVEL ACCOUNT OF THE HENRY CLAY.

The wreck of the steamer Henry Clay has caused,
we believe, as much excitement, and furnished as many newspaper articles, as the death of that most honored man from whom it derived its name. We are not inclined to say more upon concerning the wreck, but the following from the Home Journal is so entirely novel and interesting as to deserve a small place in our columns.

The whole description of the wreck, given by the paper is excellent—as an instance:

"There was an unsung lady's apron lying on the shore, and the sole of a lady's black silk dress, the upper part had evidently been burnt. A large pine box lay outside the Shanty to receive the next unknown body that should emerge, and in the Shanty a Mahogany Coffin brought up by a husband for his yet unborn wife. There were two stands near by for the sale of Lemonade, Oysters, Pies, Cigars and Tobacco; so quick is the spirit of trade to avail itself of an advantageous opening—several of the dandy species, whose
curiosity had drawn thither, made the display of vacant and vulgar hilarity, for which the tribe is noted.
While we were upon the ground the body of a lady was found, floating in the middle of the river, and towed ashore behind a boat, by a rope around her waist. She was dressed in a black silk dress, and a diamond ring glittered upon her darkened finger. Her long loose hair floated upon the water. Whether she had been drowned or old, fair, or the contrary, whether plain, no one could conjecture, so hideously blackened and distorted was her countenance, and swollen was her form. While the crowd was pressing forward to gaze upon this distressing spectacle, a man brought news that the coffin allied to had found its occupant.
The husband, while walking along another part of
the beach, saw a body rolling about in the waves, which proved to be the one of which he was in search."

We copy the above ad libitum, without reference to its proper order. The whole description is highly graphic, novel and entertaining.

MR. DE LEON AND THE SOUTHERN PRESS.

SKETCHED will be found the card of Mr. De Leon,
the Junior Editor of the Southern Press.

Mr. De Leon condenses a great deal in very few words. We feel that his remarks will be generally and properly appreciated. His uniform and constant devotion to the avocation he has chosen most certainly
deserves a rich reward:

"The senior editor and proprietor has announced the discontinuance of the Southern Press. My victory shall be brief. We have differed and will differ on a question of policy—on a question of principle. My own views were fully expressed on the 2d of July as to not need repetition. Subsequent events have but confirmed my convictions on those points, but my difference with my colleague could not change my relation to the Press, so long as I could consistently adhere to it. As I sat by its cradle so I have followed it here. I have neither regrets nor reproaches for the past, for the future the Southern people must provide for me. For five years I have devoted all my means, time and my energies to the advocacy of the Southern cause. The sense of duty performed has been my sole reward; and whatever my sacrifices or sufferings
may have been, that conviction has supported, and I will support me, against the active hostility of
enemies, and the cold contempt of professing friends."

The Advertiser.

EDGEFIELD, S. C.
WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 18, 1852.

Notice!

The "EDGEFIELD FLYING ARTILLERY" will celebrate its anniversary on Friday, the 20th inst., at
Dr. Wm. H. Burt's Well, near the Village. There will be an Oration and a Dinner.

The Ladies, and the public generally are respectfully invited.

The Members of the Company are requested to assemble at the Village early Friday morning.

We have not sufficient space in our present number for the article signed "A LEADER OF THE PEOP-LE." It will be cheerfully published in our next.

MAJOR GENERAL.

We invite the attention of our readers to the card,
and announcement of Col. E. P. Jones of Greenville. It will be found on another column. We deem further, or in fact, any comment unnecessary
as the card speaks well and fully for itself.

COMMISSION BUSINESS.

Attention of the public is invited to the advertisement of Messrs. CHAMBERS, JEFFERS & Co., for the purpose of carrying on a general collection
and commission business in Charleston. Mr. JEFFERS, formerly of Hamburg, is well known to our readers, inasmuch that we deem further comment entirely unnecessary.

DRUG STORE.

The advertisement of D. B. PIERCE & Co., Druggist and Chemist, Broad Street, Augusta Geo., will be found in to-day's paper. This firm advertises a full and complete assortment, not only of "Drugs, Medicines, Chemicals, &c.," but also a large and well supplied of "superior" Perfumery, Perfumes, Garden Seed &c. We have no doubt but that our readers will be pleased and benefited by calling upon these gentlemen.

WARE HOUSE.

It will be seen from Mr. BEXSON'S card, that he has leased the large and commodious Ware House, formerly occupied by the firm of BRANNON & COLE-MAN. Our planters, and the public in general are well acquainted with Mr. B., and we need only refer them to his advertisement.

PRESIDENTIAL.

SENATOR BUTLER'S letter, published on another column, will be read with great interest by his constituents. We are pleased to learn that the views expressed by him in regard to the Presidency, are similar to those entertained by our humble selves.
Indeed, we believe he has not only reached the true sentiments of the whole State. The remarks of Senator B. are not less remarkable for their brevity
and perspicacity, than for their sound logic and convincing argument. While his bold, free and independent tone proves him no ambitious aspirant for Federal distinction, the sincerity and honesty with which his convictions are expressed, argue faithful allegiance, and faithful devotion to the honor and interest of the South.

ARTILLERY DINNER.

We are requested to state on behalf of the Committee of Arrangements for the Artillery Dinner on Friday next, that, hoping to be cheered by the commune of a more lovely fair one on that day, they will be exceedingly pleased to receive from the good housewives of the village and its vicinity their usual complement of pastry, "nie-mas" &c., which will be set off the ladies table. The Committee will provide the cake, meaning, of course, no offence to the ladies.
A fine band (Boileau's from Augusta) will be in attendance.

We take great pleasure in calling the attention of the public to the above announcement. Patriotism bids us proudly celebrate the anniversary of the
"bloody field of Clarendon"—indeed duty, honor pay glad tribute to their memory.

We need scarcely say, that the "Butler Artillery,"
under the careful supervision of our worthy fellow
townsman, Capt. W. C. MORAGNE, and his brother Officers, has become not only a finely drilled, but also a useful and efficient corps.

We sincerely trust that the day will be celebrated in the usual fine manner and acclamatory good style of